Caught in a contest of lies and deceptions
Forcely seduced to stop praying to a new God
I've crossed the line between war and perdition
Not comprehending how my future would unfold

(Pre-Chorus)

Caught on a one way trip to do my kataklysm
Drown like a mad towards the flame

(Chorus)

Save me from the fires of eternity
Save me from dammnation, don't let me burn in hell
Rescue me from everlasting agony
Rescue me... Save me from myself

Too many times I've regreted my choices
Trying in vain to renounce the demon within
Am I the remedy, or am I the poisson?
Now that the darkness has to my skin

(Pre-Chorus)

(Chorus)

Once I had fallen
Despite your warnings
It was already too late
What's left unspoken
My bow was broken
And so I sealed my faith

(Chorus)

Save me from the fires of eternity
Save me from dammnation, don't let me burn in hell
Rescue me from everlasting agony
Rescue me... Save me from myself

Save me from myself
