Breaking free from a world so cold
To a dream just to save my soul
In a place where the sun don't shine
I can feel what I wish was mine
I wish that I could walk away
But now I'm in so deep I'll never find my way
I don't wanna wake up from this dream
I don't wanna feel the light of day
Against my skin cuz it's burnin', yeah
Lookin' into an angel's eyes
Lookin' back she could hear my cries
Reachin' out she would take my hand
But she belongs to another man, yea she does
I wish that I could walk away
But now I'm in so deep I'll never find my way
I don't wanna wake up from this dream
I don't wanna feel the light of day
Against my skin cuz it's burnin', ah yeah
Fighting with the demons in my head
Taking all the precious things I have
Inside my head cuz it's burnin', yeah burnin'

Takes me places that I've never been Close my eyes and she lets me in
I'm getting love like I never could Stayin' down never felt so good, no it don't
I don't wanna wake up from this dream
I don't wanna feel the light of day
Against my skin cuz it's burnin', ah yeah
Fighting with the demons in my head
Taking all the precious things I have
Inside my head cuz it's burnin', ah yeah
