You see me cryin', you see me tryin'
Said sorry honey I never told you goodbye
Well if you see my baby
Said Lord won't you send her home
Cause by the the time she realize she's wrong
I might not be alone

The kitchen's empty and the well is dry
Can't find my way around, no way to just get by
Well if you see my baby
Said Lord won't you send her home
Cause by the the time she realize she's wrong
I might not be alone

Lord won't you send my baby home
Cause I've lonely for too long
I've been tryin' but I can't make it on my on
Won't you please, said a please send my baby home

Well I've been itching to tell you why
Said sorry honey I never meant to make you cry
Well if you see my baby
Said Lord send her home, yeah
Cause by the the time she realize she's wrong
I might not be alone

Well, Lord won't you send my baby home
Cause I've lonely for too long
Well, I've been tryin' but I can't make it on my on
Won't you please, said a please send my baby home

Lord won't you send my baby home
Cause I've lonely for too long
I've been tryin' but I can't make it on my on
Won't you please, said a please
Lord won't you send my baby home
Lord won't you send my baby home
I've been tryin' but I can't make it on my on
Won't you please, just send my baby home
