Everything you do coming right back at you
On your knees and you don't know what to do
You don't know what to do
Every bump you hit you break down you're weakened
You're on hold and you've got no place to go
You've got no place to go

You went down, took a turn
Another day just crashed and burned
You've risen up but things will never be the same

No more late nights no more beer
No more sorrow no more tears
No more insignificance, gets you back again

Last in line and it ain't going forward
Broken back and your batteries are low
Your batteries are low
Try to stay afloat but you weight yourself down
Try to reach the shore but land is out of sight
Land is out of sight

You went down, took a turn
Another day just crashed and burned
You've risen up but things will never be the same

No more late nights no more beer
No more sorrow no more tears
No more insignificance, gets you back again
