You say you wanna take it slow
You're in the shadow all alone in a one-man show
Leave the bar at eleven 36200

You button every button in your tucked-in shirt You're coming fresh out of sunday school trying to convert
Leave the bar at eleven you're afraid to get hurt

But come on, no way you enjoy this
Every one comes alive tonight
Scream and raise your fist

Let go loose control just a little
We're just looking for a little fun
God knows we've got answers to the questions of a worried mind

Show me i girl to get down with you
And I'll show you one who'll never see it through Take a lesson from Rocketfuel Mule

But come on, no way you enjoy this
Every one comes alive tonight
Scream and raise your fist

Let go loose control just a little
We're just looking for a little fun
God knows we've got answers to the questions of a
worried mind
