Dive into the hard times with my mind set on you Heart ache is on prime time but I slept it all through

My time was wasted but I don't think I can say the samt
'bout you
All dead but that's what we're into

Girl I was born inte greatness but conformity is bliss
I got stuck in a city where I care less
Still I try to shake this town every night

Down want nowater baby, water makes mecold Just want your red blood honey and do what I've been told

Born in a small town and I'm never gonna move away from here
We're running faster than we live

Girl I was born inte greatness but conformity is bliss
I got stuck in a city where I care less
Still I try to shake this town every night
