Die on your knees like a dog, you fucking heretic!
Behold the splintered skull, of your god
Smashed by a lunatic!

Satan's Hammer!

Choke on the bile of belief, and the mucus of martyrdom
Your philosophy is disease, and disease is my domain

Satan's Hammer!

Down it falls
Weighs a ton
Crushes hope,
In your heart
Devil's fires

Enshrine your soul
Ideals fall
Set in soul
A god dethroned
You're a nail
The flesh of Christ
Embraces you

Wretch, as you drink my poison the mead of poetry, Hung all alone with death and the bliss which is solitude
Rise like a lord, like a duke, like the king of gallows Weep for your world, for your love, never the same again
