New World Disorder
Old means of torture
Privatized water-boarder
Liberty, can't afford her
Ideological hoarder
Peace time warrior

I'm getting out of town
I'm going on vacation
Screw the global world
I'll live in isolation
Put a gate around my island
Enter only by invitation
Write a nasty letter to the united nations
They're just wealthy men who impose their limitations
Won't have to deal with all their imitations
Of second rate third world, initiations
Occupy the media for the mass manipulation
Build a brand new world upon selective immigration
We could overcome everything that we're facing
If we listen to the sound of the voices we're erasing
We could overcome but we don't have the motivation
We want all the ends without origination
We're a better newer Lost Generation
We build our house upon a liquid foundation
Castles made of straw and a strong hesitation
