There is no buy and not be bought
There is no seek and not be sought
If we break down on the side of the road
I don't know which way to go from here
& I don't know where you're coming from
Don't know where you wanna go
But baby I can take you there

Now it's 21st century living
Well baby did you want me to give in?
Did I have a choice?
Now it's 21st century dying
I'm just a 1 man symphony trying
To make some noise

There is no catch and not be caught
There is no fight and not be fought

If we break down on the side of the road
I don't know which way to go from here
& I don't know where you're coming from
Don't know where you wanna go
But maybe I can take you there

Now it's 21st century living
Well baby did you want me to give in?
Did I have a choice?
Now it's 21st century dying
I'm just a 1 man symphony trying
To make some noise

There is no teach and not be taught
There is no shoot and not be shot

Now it's 21st century living
Well baby did you want me to give in?
Did I have a choice?
Now it's 21st century dying
I'm just a 1 man symphony trying
To make some noise
You're just another enemy trying

To steal my voice
