"Hold On"

just at the top of this hill awaits happiness you can find it if you climb it i'm sure of it

meet him at the corner with your sorrow drop it at his feet wake up find joy tomorrow

if you're lookin for security cross the bridge
ahead of ya take a right through the town

keep your head down
can't afford to be distracted you're on a mission

stay clear of the glorious opposition listen this advice we speak is not new age it's scriptural an integral part of our belief historical accounts deemed crazy but the freedom I've found happens to amaze me

welcome to the revolution it's time for the weak to find retribution time for the lost to find their home time for believers to speak into the microphone and we sing hold on hold on hold on

you and i can make it

through this

hold on tight don't lose your grip

we will survive

are you ready for the supernatural cameo
comin stereo swing super duper flow high to low hit this track again mexican caucasian
african american everybody movin from bangkok to the netherlands all around it's evident god give us
strength again, he gives us strength and if you don't like the funk take a soul vitamin if you don't know this love invite it in why cause we're bringin old ideas that ya might not dig about a selfless love for a selfish kid and i kid not open up take a sip

from the cup tell me do you like whatcha see

welcome to the invitation time for the weak to break domination time for lost to find their home time for believers to speak into the microphone and we sing.

so you think you've got it all figured out no doubt it's about you getting through no matter what you've gotta do who you've gotta hurt rub face in the dirt stab in the back attack and rip em up like that now you ask yourself what's the question I'm addressin why's it pressin my chest in and I'm headin right back to the ones who know but don't show who plant but don't grow.
