One more kiss for Famous Love,
For this famous love.

One more diamond, Famous Love,
For this famous love.

And you caught me in my lies,
When my mind was lost on wine.
Who'd of thought it'such a crime,
To love. Love love.
To love, love love.

One more dance for Famous Love,
For this famous love.

For this Famous Love

And you caught me in my lies,
When my mind was lost on wine.
Who'd of thought it'such a crime,
To love. Love love.
To love, love love.
After all, I believe this is who we are.
After all, I believe this is where we are.
Who we are,
Tear your heart.
I believe that your still a star,
Cut and scarred.

And you caught me in my lies,
When my mind was lost on wine.
Who'd of thought it'such a crime,
To love. Love love.

And you caught me in my lies,
When my mind was lost on wine.
Who'd of thought it'such a crime,
To love. Love love.
To love, love love.
