If you're vying for his attention, not enough affection
for you.

Find yourself a thing to do now, don't be crying that's below you.

Oh well, that's what you get falling in love with a
cowboy.

Oh Lord, don't you forget, you fell in love with a
cowboy.

That's what you get.

And a man must be his own, it's only for the best you know dear.

If he's got things on his mind well, there's a plan he's mustering so,

Oh well, that's what you get falling in love with a
cowboy.

Oh Lord, don't you forget, you fell in love with a
cowboy.

That's what you get.

And at night under the sheets, his arms come
searching for your embrace.

Don't be mad, you know it's only what you wanted in the first place.

Oh well, that's what you get falling in love with a
cowboy.

Oh Lord, don't you forget, you fell in love with a
cowboy.

That's what you get.

That's what you get.
