[Verse 1]

Ever since I met you I knew you were my one But lately you've been doing things
That make me feel like we're done
You don't return my phone calls.
Why can't you call me back
This mystery has got me feeling so off track
Used to take walks holding hands
And talk about distant lands
Now I just don't understand What happened to my man

[Chorus]

What, what happened, what happened to the man you used to be What, what happened, what happened to the promises
you made to me
What, what happened, what happened to the days
when you were true
What happened, what happened

[Verse 2]

You know that I love you
And still you treat me this way
You say that you love me too
But if that were true
You wouldn't do me like you do
I'm trying to make this work
But how much more do I have to hurt
Is my effort even worth all of this misery
Will you ever bring love back to me

[Chorus]

What, what happened, what happened to the man you
used to be
What, what happened, what happened to the promises
you made to me
What, what happened, what happened to the days
when you were true
What happened, what happened

[Bridge]

Do you even care cause you're just sitting there Like you don't see me crying, like you don't feel love dying
I'm so sick of trying on my own
So can you tell me what happened to the way we used to be

[Chorus]

What, what happened, what happened to the man you
used to be
What, what happened, what happened to the promises
you made to me
What, what happened, what happened to the days
when you were true
What happened, what happened
