You don't have to like her
So leave her alone
And mind your own troubles
Said the king on the throne
You think that you know her
You don't know her at all
Said the prince to the commoners
That attended the ball
Paranoid Princess
A prisoner you see
Imprisoned by the people
Just like you and me
Deep within her castle
Locked away in her dreams
Of a knight in shining armor
To rescue her from her screams
You want to judge her
Guilty as charged
To hide in your own shadows
While you're running at large
You don't treat her with kindness

You're all so mean

I dread what would happen

When she becomes the queen

Paranoid Princess

A prisoner you see

Imprisoned by the people

Just like you and me
