On a rainy sunday morning
Breathe down - in melancholy
Angles don't believe that you can't smile
You try to call an old friend
I'd like to know how are you
Person you have called is out of range

All the crimes against humanity
What for we have the sweetest kind
Of situation here?
While the world is bleeding

Opposite there's a girl
She never turns her lights off
Maybe she can't sleep maybe she reads
If you have two choices you have to decide
With one choice you can have it all

Most devoted wins after all

All the crimes against humanity
What for we have the sweetest kind
Of situation here?
While the world is bleeding

Close your eyes free your mind and dive
We have seven and they have five
Who are triggers and on which side
We should give much more parachutes
We should give we should give we would
Is in strange they deserve it too
Free your mind angels need your help
But angels smile
