Scandal

When You catch a wicked ghost
Getting dressed in her white dress
Eventhough your best friend
Needs wings to help

Scandal

When You realize that
The evil are right here
But not in prison
Fulfill their vision

Everytime is the primetime
And kind of a sunshine
Anytime is the primetime

Scandal

You'll have access to hurt
If you laugh with the girl
Who has two aggressive Big Brothers
Scandal
They'll love you as long as you have Something cool on
"I Love New York"-print
Would be more than hot

Everytime is the primetime
And kind of a sunshine
Anytime is the primetime

1, 2, 3 we're learning about
Then 16 does not have any love
33 and it's over now
666 and there's no reason to count

Everytime is the primetime
And kind of a sunshine
Anytime is the primetime
