Mr. President, there would be one level of disclosure
for the Congress,

is that correct?

One level of disclosure for the public...

[crowd]

Imprison the President

Incarcerate the Congress

Levitate the Pentagon

(Now we're making progress)

Imprison the President

Incarcerate the Congress

Levitate the Pentagon

(Now we're making progress)

[VERSE 1: Laquan]

A Senate cheat, what a feat to beat

Four mill until you buy the seat

Illicit contributions

Political prostitution

Looking for that fix

Peddle influence until it sticks

Are they funds or are they bribes?

I'm talkin about the Keating Five

The Senators are gettin paid off

So Lincoln won't get laid off

The banks are bankrupt

The Congress corrupt

What I don't get is the Federal bet

Two hundred billion in debt

Damn, that's enough to get a nigga upset

What I'm stating is incriminating evidence

Imprison the President

(Well, I do not recall [..])

I have no recollection

I do not recall

I do not recall)

[crowd]

Imprison the President

Incarcerate the Congress

Levitate the Pentagon

(Now we're making progress)

(Listen to them lying muthafuckas [..])

[..] a man that's a retired actor run a country?)

Imprison the President

[VERSE 2: Laquan]

Congress spoke, slaveowners vote

A joke if you ask my folks

All men are created equal and stated
Equal, then contemplated
Best-seller fiction to the people
Yo, I can't wait to read the sequel
The people tell me this is phony
Giving your testimony, homie
They had to use, abuse, a low blow
1990 and still flying Jim Crow
Using Willie Horton for the fight
Frighten whites on election night
A thousand points of light, right?
The glare is bright and there's still no sight
Remember 83 in Panama?
A tip and trip from the drug czar
Summit with Bush and Noriega
Classic Coke is what they gave ya
Fly em in via CIA
Chumped from up above as they say
Start a war, yo, what the hell for?
Take him out, he won't talk no more
What I'm stating is incriminating evidence
Imprison the President
[crowd]
Imprison the President
Incarcerate the Congress

Levitate the Pentagon

(Now we're making progress)

Imprison the President

Incarcerate the Congress

Levitate the Pentagon

(Now we're making progress)

[VERSE 3: Laquan]

I diss, dismiss what I choose to lose

The attitude is funk it while I'm swingin the blues

Self-worth ain't worth shit

While I'm starin down a big black federal pit

You know Reagan can break the law

Live another day to make a score

Phony cronies steal from HUD

Iran-Contra, political mud

Who can respect the legal system

When any Senator can put the fix in

Every Congressman gets his licks in

And in the White House still sits Dick Nixon

Flase prophets and demagogues

Living large while the people starve

Famous speeches can't do jack

When down the block you're under attack

Preach hatred, preach salvation

Fifteen secs, a media sensation

Go ahead, juice the poets of revolution

Now's the time for some hard solutions

So many answers lie in yourself

So don't go following someone else

Learn and teach your own damn evidence

Imprison the President

Imprison the President

[crowd]

Imprison the President

Levitate the Pentagon

(Now we're making progress)
