ooohhh yeaaa oooh my ooh my take the trials that you been through and all the times life made you blue search down deep within yourself ooohhh make it medicine for someone else someone else share the joys you wish you know hold on to the tears that you share bottle them with care as though for yourself ohhh make it medicine for someone else someone else you gotta go on and it's hard I know sometimes the way you see it grow is for you

not to take it personal cause it's not about yourself yes it's hard to face when you suffer for someone else share the battles good and bad the hardest trials you've ever had take out the trophies take them off the shelf

ohhh oh yea ooooohh oooh mmmmy mmmmy my hey

but it's hard i know sometimes the way you see love grow
is for you
yess it's hard when you suffer for someone else take all the trials you been through the hardest things had to go through take all the trophies take them off the shelf ohh make it medicine for someone else oohhhhh yeaah yeaah oooohhhh my my oohh make it medicine for someone else
