I thought that love was just a never ending game
But then I stumbled and fell
I know I didn't treat her right, and that's a shame
I've got my story to tell

I was so young, innocent and naive
She broke my heart when she told me to leave
It took me long enough to find, but now you're always on my mind

Hold me, touch me, never let me go
Don't let me down, don't let me down
Squeeze me, thrill me, say you love me too
Don't let me down, don't let me down
'cause baby this time I don't wanna let you go

Your little wrinkles are not visible at all, not from a distance - you're still hot!
So many years have passed but you are still the same - a little greyer - so what!

Now when we're older and wiser we know, that the experience of life makes love grow
It took me long enough to find, but now you're always on my mind

Hold me, touch me, never let me go
Don't let me down, don't let me down
Squeeze me, thrill me, say you love me too
Don't let me down, don't let me down
'cause baby this time I don't wanna let you go

No baby this time I don't wanna let you go
