Ahoy there! All aboard!
This relationship is leaving shore.
Anchor's aweigh as I set sail,
Through choppy seas, rain storms and gales.

The sun is rising on the horizon,
As I climb the mast, my heart's capsizing
From the crow's nest, where the view is best
I can see she's swimming miles from where I'm casting nets.

Oh no!
I know they say there's plenty more fish in the sea
But that girl was the best catch in 50,000 leagues.

Oh no!
I know they say there's plenty more fish in the sea
But that girl was the best catch in 50,000 leagues.
She's the one that got away!

Electric eels couldn't express what I feel
This vessel, she sunk 'cause I was drunk at the wheel
From port to starboard, man the lifeboats
She was taking in water, couldn't keep her afloat.

Apparently no man's an island,
But I'm deserted and hurting, suffering in silence
We rocked the boat when we skull and cross boned.
Should have listened to my first mate, now I'm all alone.

Oh no!
I know they say there's plenty more fish in the sea
But that girl was the best catch in 50,000 leagues.

Oh no!
I know they say there's plenty more fish in the sea
But that girl was the best catch in 50,000 leagues.

She's the one that got away!

Oh no!

I know they say there's plenty more fish in the sea
But that girl was the best catch in 50,000 leagues.

Oh no!

I know they say there's plenty more fish in the sea
But that girl was the best catch in 50,000 leagues.

She's the one that got away!
