All we gotta do is ride ride ride, just follow the sign sign signs (yeah yeah) Listen.

All i wanna do is make sure that your ok baby, Without my kind of spring mistaken for weakness cos baby when i show you love i mean it don't take me for granted cos ain't no one controlling me baby cos as much as id hate to leave i gotta stay in love with me

m not your steering wheel i am the road that takes you where you should be baby, so why crack me and you will see love never gave through anything ill show you what i mean babe

If you want me to take you there I'm right here I'm your highway if you make sure they grab you clear ill make sure you stay I'm your highway all we gotta do is ride ride ride just follow the sign sign sign and we can make our way, baby I'm your highway.

Its not really weird i keep switching the play and losing all i wanna do is sat on a road and reach it i don't wanna play and give it away but i really mean it to me its take one or take two back and id much rather travel with you cos i know what i get through.

[Ride,Ride,Ride Lyrics On]

I'm not your steering wheel i am the road that takes you where you should be baby, so why crack me and you will see love never gave through anything ill show you what i mean babe

If you want me to take you there I'm right here I'm your highway if you make sure they grab you clear ill make sure you stay I'm your highway all we gotta do is ride ride ride just follow the sign sign sign and we can make our way, baby I'm your highway.

I'm not your enemy baby baby, trust me even if we disagree cos to me it seems to me and its not just for now its the future if i ain't you too trust me I'm with ya all just believe you without me is the end of my journey.

If you want me to take you there I'm right here I'm your highway if you make sure they grab you clear ill make sure you stay.

I'm your highway all we gotta do is ride ride ride just follow the sign sign sign and we can make our way, baby I'm your highway.
