We all die. We all lose control
Searching for something to right this
Searching for something to save the day
I keep on moving for just a moment
And now I scream for one more lie

As the moment drifts away...

We're not moving forward
Were just drifting away
(Just drifting away)
Not moving forward
Just watch it fall
We are the fallen ones

Searching for something to right this
I'm searching for, oh God just take this pain
Searching for anything stronger
Something to numb the pain that holds me down

As the moment drifts away
(Chorusx1)

We are the fallen

Searching for something to right this
Searching for
Oh God, just numb this pain
Searching for something to right this
Searching for
Oh God, just take this pain

I can't control the fates.

And this is the way that this ends
We etch our legends in the sand

As the moment drifts away, as the moments drift away
Chorus X1
We are the fallen
