V1:

You Think your so tough, with your blue bagged bottle and a bar code tash
But still you havent got a clue Mr what its all about.

V2:

Your sellin drugs
to fund your addiction, what a piece of.....

Bridge 1:

I donk know!
what this fucking world is coming to!

Bridge 2:

I've been told!
lifes a bitch and so I married you!

Chorus:

No i dont want a knife in the back,
and I, dont even wanna watch my back,
while we, cant even keep this train on the track,
this crime waves rising steadily day by day,
A stolen car the lives it has wrecked,
from a, drunken youth, no life you can bet,
while we cant even keep our faces intact
big city ghetto,
you take that for a fact.

Bridge 3:

I donk know!
what this fucking world is coming to!

SOLO:

Bridge 2:

I've been told!
That i'd be gone if it were not for you!

Chorus:

No i dont want a knife in the back,
and I, dont even wanna watch my back,
while we, cant even keep this train on the track,
this crime waves rising steadily day by day,
A stolen car the lives it has wrecked,
from a, drunken youth, no life you can bet,
while we cant even keep our faces intact
big city ghetto,
you take that for a fact.

Homie part:

Take that for a fact,
we live in a ghetto and theres no way back and theres no escaping the truth from the humble existence
thats excists between me and you, Whats our game plan? whats the way out?
I think u know the score
now that I have no doubts, yeah

Chorus:

No I dont want a knife in the back,
and I, dont even wanna watch my back,
while we, cant even keep this train on the track,
this crime waves rising steadily day by day,
A stolen car the lives it has wrecked,
from a, drunken youth, no life you can bet,
while we cant even keep our faces intact
big city ghetto,
you take that for a fact.
