Verse 1

As he looks in the mirror he starts to cry
He can't find the reasons why
No peace, no contentment
So he makes up his mind
To seek out the answers on dark, lonely night
Asking Lord Who am I

Chorus

Who am I lord, Who Am I
And how do I let go of moments gone by
I will not let go, until you reply
Asking Lord who am I

Verse 2

In a still, soft voice
Out of the blue
A voice softly whispers, "I've been watching you,"
"I hear all your thoughts, seen everything that you do,"
"My son I've been patiently waiting for you,"
"I've got so many plans for you."

Chorus

Who am I lord, Who Am I
And how do I let go of moments gone by
I will not let go, until you reply
Asking Lord who am I
