Eh, man just play that same thing, just like that

Ohh, no, no
Bigger than the sky that stretches wide and blue
Bigger than the rock on your hand that I gave to you
Bigger than the ones who doubt our love is true
It's bigger than the both of us
Never, never, never, never had a greater love, greater
love

How do we begin to stop the waves
From crashing to the shore
Can't lock emotions out, it's too late
'Cuz it's already in the door

And how do we pretend that we don't hear the sound
Of our beating hearts
How can we stop the flow when we know
We can never be apart

All I know is that I see the light of love
Shining bright
Like a glow up in the sky that's guiding me
Through the night

Can't change your fate, no matter what
'Cuz it's already written down
What I found in you, you found in me
So whatever happens baby, let it be

Bigger than the sky that stretches wide and blue
Bigger than the rock on your hand that I gave to you
Bigger than the ones who doubt our love is true
It's bigger than the both of us

Just as sure as the wind blows and the sun shines from above
Rest assure that tomorrow bring this promise of love
There will come a day when you hear me say girl 'I do'
'Cuz I already know girl, I know that for me there is only

you

'Cuz all I know is that I see the light of love shining bright
Like a glow up in the sky that's guiding me through the night
Can't change your fate no matter what, 'cuz it's already written down
What I found in you, you found in me, so whatever happens
Baby, let it be

Bigger than the sky that stretches wide and blue
Bigger than the rock on your hand that I gave to you
Bigger than the ones who doubt our love is true
It's bigger than the both of us
Never, never, never, never had a greater love, greater
love

A man in love is all I am
No more no less, that's what I am
And I am nothing, if you take your love away
I'm gonna get down on my knees
I'm gonna pray you never leave
Till forever's come and gone
Our love was still [Incomprehensible]

Bigger than the sky that stretches wide and blue
Bigger than the rock on your hand that I gave to you
Bigger than the ones who doubt our love is true
It's bigger than the both of us

Bigger than the sky that stretches wide and blue
Bigger than the rock on your hand that I gave to you
Bigger than the ones who doubt our love is true
It's bigger than the both of us
Never, never, never, never had a greater love, greater
love

Oh, baby, bigger than me, bigger than you, baby
Bigger than the both of us, both of us Never, never, never, never
