Everytime I feel pressed down
I keep talking, I can't stop
Everytime you run undressed
I feel better, so good

Everytime I wake up at night
I think about it, the easier days
Everytime We're in a fight
It all feels so natural.

Ahh.. Ahhh.. (I keep listening to the shit on the radio)
Ahh.. Ahhh.. (I keep listening to the shit on the radio)

I take it you already knew it
I take it you already have everything
I take it you made me look ugly
I take it you need to get it on

I take it you already knew it
I take it you already have everything
I take it you made me look ugly
I take it you need to get it on (by yourself)

You keep listening to the shit on the radio (radio, radio)
You keep listening to the shit on the radio (radio, radio)

Everytime I meet the one
I feel spineless, I can't walk
Everytime I dream I fall
I wake up soaked, everytime

Who the hell made you the king?
And I'm listening to your bullshit
Everytime you do yourself
We keep watching from the edge

I take it you already knew it
I take it you already have everything
I take it you made me look ugly
I take it you need to get it on

I take it you already knew it
I take it you already have everything
I take it you made me look ugly
I take it you need to get it on

Ahh.. Ahhh.. (I take it)
Ahh.. Ahhh.. (I take it)
Ahh.. Ahhh.. (I take it you already knew it)
Ahh.. Ahhh.. (I take it you already have everything)
Ahh.. Ahhh.. (I take it you made me look ugly)
Ahh.. Ahhh.. (I take it you need to get it on by yourself)

I take it you already knew it
I take it you already have everything
I take it you made me look ugly
I take it you need to get it on

I take it you already know
I take it you have everything
And why do you make me look like this
I just can't take it, take it, no
