My soul is on fire
With a mighty love for you
And one and one is one not two
Am I the fire inside of you

My soul is on fire
And it will not rest until you're known
Cannot bear my solitude alone
Have you come to roll away the stone

I saw you coming through my waves of joy
Rode through the night with you
My souls envoy
And were it not for you I'd surely die
I'd surely die

My soul is on fire
'Cause you made yourself to be so fine
With a will of iron I could not mine
You're the very apex of all divine

My soul is on fire
I'm the missing link in your disguise
I'm the willing screen for all your lies
I'm the mask that cannot hide your eyes

I saw you coming through my waves of joy
Rode through the night with you
My souls envoy
And were it not for you I'd surely die
I'd surely die
