Yaaahoooooooooooooooooooo

Ooo yeah

I've been waiting (Oh yeah)

Spend my time chasing

For your love (Uh huh)

And it's going down tonight (It's going down tonight)

I've been waiting

Spend my time chasing (Yes I did)

For your love

And it's going down tonight (It's going down tonight)

What did you think you would do?

What did you think you'd say?

After I told you how I was feeling

Never thought I'd see this day

I always kept dreaming

Never let failure hurt my heart

I knew that you would soon see better

All I could do is hope and say

Is there a chance or possibility,

That I could get close to you?

I want to get romantic with you

Do all the things that lovers do

Finally all the things that I've done

To get the chance to be with you

It was sure 'nuff worth the wait

Tonight I'll be wrapped up in your arms

I always kept wishing

I always kept praying

Good things come to those who wait

That's what momma always said

Baby that phrase stuck in my head

There's nothing I won't do

To please you

Given the chance, I'll do you right

Even inside I have to know

Is there a chance or a possibility,

That I could get close to you?

I want to get romantic with you

Do all the things that lovers do

Finally all the things that I've done

To get the chance to be with you

I guess it was sure 'nuff worth the wait
Tonight I'll be wrapped up in your arms
