[Verse 1]

Be a little senseless, directionless the best made plans are usually a joke the road's gonna go where it wants to go and be a little fearless and careless this could be your most cherished mistake or a waste of time, that's the chance you take who can tell it's a shot in the dark, but what the hell

[CHORUS]

you don't have to be so serious seriously why does it always have to be about lasting love you're too smart for that and I'm much too young just make me smile and make me laugh, and let me slide into you, like a bubble bath.

stop looking for a reason for believing 'cause I don't think I want one anyway it is what it is at the end of the day but baby there's a cool wind and warm skin and long and liquid kisses soft and sweet and time as wide as an empty beach all I know you are who you are and you're so beautiful

[CHORUS]

baby you're so beautiful to me
