There's something about the way you look at me
My eyes are all you see
There's something about the way you speak to me
That says I'm all you need

Is this the way
Is this the way
Is this the way it's supposed to be

There's something about the way you lay me down
It's gentle and it's sweet
There's something about the way you kiss me now
From my head down to my feet

Is this the way
Is this the way
Is this the way it's supposed to be

There's something about the way you hold my hand
And you never let me go
There's something about the way you understand
And the devil that you know

Is this the way
Is this the way
Is this the way it's supposed to be
