One more time you will catch up in
You become old and die from it
Hold my breath and think
I can make it alone
This is a true test of my faith
We found the promises of grace
But with vanity
I can make it alone

Get out of my little world
You've got no right to stay
Get out of my little world

One more time I will loose my nerve
And drop my personal life
These changes wont change my mind again
You plead with innocence and grief
Just know this problem isn't me
Only ask this once

Can't I make it alone

Get out of my little world
Get out of my little world

No face is on my god
But true believers call
No face is on my god
But true believers call

Get out of my little world
Get out of my little world

I'm starting to change me little world
Get out of my little world
