Growing old, and living for
the moment you're searching for something.
You cannot find the truth that's inside,
will reveal all that you're living for.

Thinking love is gone, it's gone.

Why wait for you to come home?
Why search for answers to nothing?
Don't Come back crying for help.
Why wait for life to come?

Growing old and living for
the moment you're searching for something.
Cannot find, the truth inside
will reveal all that you're living for.

Giving all is gone, it's gone
Why wait for you to come home?
Why search for answers to nothing?
Don't come back crying for help.
Why wait for life to come?

Think back, shocking. Believe it's me.

Why wait for you to come home?
Why search for answers to nothing?
Don't come back crying for help.
Why wait for life to come?
