[Angie] Uh huh
[Rufus] Hey baby
[Angie] I think I wanna just rap to ya for just a second [Rufus] 'Bout what
[Angie] Cuz there's some things we got to change
In order to move forward [Rufus] Whatchu talking about?
[Angie] Because I believe in you
[Rufus] You believe in me?
[Angie] All things are possible
[Rufus] Uh huh
[Angie] You just chill, stand still [Rufus] Aiight, I'm right here
[Angie] First things first [Rufus] Right

Don't go working my nerve over something that you heard
Don't be dissing my name cuz you slipped up on your game
Don't be making me cry, turn around and apologize Stop pretending to be something you're not

[1] - Cuz you got mad issues
And you tend to misuse
Every opportunity to right your wrong
You're causin' more problems
With no way to solve them
The time has come to leave well enough alone

You got mad issues
And you tend to abuse
Every opportunity to make it good
You're causin' more problems
With no way to solve them
Time has come, and boy I really wish you would

Don't be acting like me, you've been rich all of your life Don't be breaking crews cuz you've had it good for sometime
Use a masquarade, and stop blowing me shame

Stop pretending to be somebody you're not

[Repeat 1]

And I never woulda thought you was all about your

Now you got to go to where you came

Confusing the brain, it's all from the pain

Nothing to gain, outta my rein

Too late to make a change

Don't say my name, don't no no no no

And I never woulda thought you was all about your

Now you got to go to where you came
