Things have been goin' wrong long enough to know
Everything is right
Been walkin' in the dark long enough to know
Finally seen the light
Been losin' long enough to know
When I've finally won

And even a blind man can tell
When he's walkin' in the sun

I've cried enough tears to know
This feeling's called a smile
I've been bottom rung long enough to know
When I'm doin' it in style
Been run long to know
There's no more need to run

And even a blind man can tell
When he's walkin' in the sun

Oh, the wind is at my back
And I'm sailin' on a ship that's overdue
Well, I've blown so many chances
I ain't gonna blow this one with you
Seen enough bad times to know
Good times have begun

And even a blind man can tell
When he's walkin' in the sun

Even a blind man can tell
When he's walkin' in the sun
In the sun
In the sun
In the sun
