Fluxing through the vocal channels, hyper density deluxe Inner space state of mind but mentally i'm stuck Reciting my visions, incisions so precise My words paint pictures pigmented to your sight Fibre-optic, popped and locked it, pick pocket Punctured mic rocking rotated to eye sockets I see you but you can't see me Cause fresh fires burning, celestial energy Is harnessed, strapped back like mad max Ultimate uncanny tore trains to rip tracks Kick ass to cyber syntax, quick like the flash Moving steadily through black holes but staying intact Mad mix, spitting frantic fantastic Calling autobot ratchet to repair my damage It's omega, the end all to be all The smoke laid curtain for the seeds when i blazed an eon I got nothing to gain and alot less to lose Till death due us hip hop wears my tennis shoes Man I'll tear you a heart I'll tear you a heart Man I'll tear you a heart Unique philosophies dug from greek mythology Ancient hieroglyphic anomalies imbed into the heart of me Five fractured, five on design, five shines Like a superimposed sun when a full eclipse aligns Times dies, watch the clock, i make it break Full spectral organism wearing the hide of your face Cornia corruption crash landed on my earth Astral-projected my outline all over your turf Tongued live power outlets just to get a jolt Drank colts with Campbell while he tightened up my bolts Stay sharp like the shank that i carved my mic into Slit dudes when the mood rules makes way to intrude Killing distinct cats but i wash my hands clean Blood blisters spill ill, infect sick like hiv Breaking down the heavens from the incest and deaf Keep the skies clean while i keep my styles fresh I got nothing to gain and alot less to lose Till death due us hip hop wears my tennis shoes Man I'll tear you a heart I'll tear you a heart Man I'll tear you a heart Anubis, vocal vandal, wanted anarchist Stole the planets life force and abandoned it Divided stars steady, ready heavy machetti Until the galaxy was decorated with deadly confetti Designer made chest plate keeping in the passion Spray can to eight-track, cracking back and maxing Action uprise, predator deluxe Uptempo monumental decible level rhythm flux Incision cuts, aztec temple lacerations Melted montezuma, ripped his heart out and ate it Digestive tract gets neglected on the playlist Galvatron Omega stabbing third eyes into masons Facing amazing life threatening situations Eye to eye with Satan, battling mic piece adjacent Juggernaut on the beat unleashing soundwaves Devestator rip rhymes, forged vinyl slaving plays Hyper speed initiate, deep space stone cold Watching the death star unfold in slow mode Master in command adds steady current to music Guardian jiving justice if you hurt or abuse it I got nothing to gain and alot less to lose Till death due us hip hop wears my tennis shoes Man I'll tear you a heart I'll tear you a heart Man I'll tear you a heart
