Black Market Designer Love, Kung Lao Ha, Anubis5 Feel the vibe, feel the vibe, feel the vibe. Yo, feel alive. Feel the vibe, feel alive My beautiful black widow razor legged arachnid, how do you stay so seductive If affection was a drug I'd be starchasing on acid, I still play it like I'm reluctant I'm stuck in between a rock and a hard place Thoughts of you are abrasive speeding up my heart's pace I close my eyes and rest assure my soul That I'm going to stay focused till I start to lose control Cause there ain't no tax on attraction No, there ain't no tax on attraction No there ain't no tax, there ain't no tax There ain't no tax on attraction There ain't no tax on attraction There ain't no tax on attraction No there ain't no tax, there ain't tax There ain't no tax on attraction
