(Alexander)

Well, I can see that you are gone

You're here with me but you are gone

It's a matter of time

'Till you can catch up with your mind

And you're gone

There's nothing I could do, you're gone

It just caught up to you, you're gone

Woke up in a place one day

Apathy in your way

Now you're gone

You're gone

It's the time

You're slipping into shade

You're gone, you're defined

Now you're left alone to fade

For everyone concerned, you're gone

The point of no return, you're gone

One day you're gonna find

You're just a memory in someone else's mind

And you're gone
