I open my door,
Just to hear the call,
Of the milkman saying goodbye,
He Said:
I'm taking you wife,
out of your life,
and we don't care if you die.

Next morning I awoke,
And this is no joke,
The milkman tore my life apart,
He Said:
I'm taking you wife,
out of your life,
and we don't care if you die.

[CHORUS]
My wife is not there,
My life is so bare,
But I don't have a care in the world,
She left me for the milkman,
And that's what i've been told.

I fend for myself,
It's bad for my health,
The milkman don't come no more,
He Said:
I'm taking you wife,
out of your life,
and we don't care if you die.

[CHORUS]
My wife is not there,
My life is so bare,
But I don't have a care in the world,
She left me for the milkman,
And that's what i've been told.

I open my door,
Just to hear the call,
Of the milkman saying goodbye,

He Said:
I'm taking you wife,
out of your life,
and we don't care if you die.

[CHORUS]
My wife is not there,
My life is so bare,
But I don't have a care in the world,
She left me for the milkman,
And that's what i've been told.
And that's what i've been told.....
