Wring out my guilt and hang it on the line

It's been raining all week

It won't get a chance to dry

I've been looking round the pantry for a box of sorries

I'm all run out yeah I'm all run out ahhah

It's not that hard to say I know

It's not that hard to say I know

It's not that hard to say so why can't I say it now

And it's been swelling up inside like the kitchen sponge

It's in the back of my throat

It's on the tip of my tongue

If I could sweep it out the door

That would be the end

But this wind keeps blowing it in again

It's not that hard to say I know

It's not that hard to say I know

It's not that hard to say so why can't I say it now

I've been knocking on the doors

And drumming on the blinds

It all seems to find it's way back inside

If I could sweep it out the door

That would be the end

But this wind keeps blowing it in again

So I can say it now
