To come around and lose yourself
To know a different life
To know that time will pass you by
We've learned to change
But did we change to learn?

Is this our so called imitation
To carry on with no convictions?
We have the calling of another life
Another way to live

We are the ones
We are the ones to blame

So wake up, now it's time, this is all we have
This is the sound of revolution
So get up, get up to the tune of the voice inside
This is the calling of a new life

And now that we know familiar scribes
The motion of our lives, we realize our actions
Let's stop and make this happen

Here we are with so much confidence
But in the end will we be falling suddenly
And find our lives are nothing but the opposite
Of something confident

We are the ones
We are the ones to blame
We are the ones
We are the ones to blame

So wake up, now it's time, this is all we have
This is the sound of revolution
So get up, get up to the tune of the voice inside
This is the calling of a new life

So wake up, now it's time, this is all we have
This is the sound of revolution
So get up, get up to the tune of the voice inside
This is the calling of a new life

Wake up there's no more time to waste
Today's the day

We are the ones
We are the ones

This is who we are
Now all rise to who we are inside
This is who we are
Now all rise to who we are inside

This is who we are
Now all rise to who we are inside
This is who we are
Now all rise to who we are inside
