

Running Wild "Evilution"

Visit "Evilution" on MotoLyrics.com

Cries for one lost nation
Reaching out against the wall
Lies to generations
Feeding minds that would not fall
Danger for the free
As they reach for the skies
I should be laughing now
But it's death in disguise
Pain that sees no borders
Empty lives alone to feel
Insane but who's to help us
Evil from the boot of steel
Doesn't hurt to flee
Pride when you die
Should I be crying now?
Their deeds are full of lies
