Out in the street, caught in the beat
Spellbound right from below
The eye on the scene, right on the screen
Slavery's ready to go
Addiction on plan, ready to scan
Your heart, your soul and your mind
Zombie eyes, trapped in its lies
Ready damnation to find

A trap so tempting to your mind
The web of illusions to keep you blind

No time for waiting, just save yourself tonight
To brake that voyage, to avoid your ride into the black

The allseeing eye, poisoning lie
Giving you shackles of gold
Freeing sin with a devilish grin
Like your forefathers told

A trap so tempting to your mind
The web of illusions to keep you blind

No time for waiting, just save yourself tonight
To brake that voyage, to avoid your ride into the black

They worship the beast, western to east
It bites and scratches your eye
A "Mantra" of lies, to stay in disguise
Until there is no more denial

A trap so tempting to your mind
The web of illusions to keep you blind

No time for waiting, just save yourself tonight
To brake that voyage, to avoid your ride into the black
