[Lyrics: Rolf Kasperek]

Did you ever see shoes are lying in the streets?
Brand new clothing, a pilgrim with no deeds? No way!

Did you ever think, who would throw it away?
A case of confusion? Madness on it's way?

Silence, dead of the night
Killers, lurking behind

Darkness falls, the serpent strikes
A secret calls in the mask of the night

Why should it happen a hundred times a year?
A secret behind that should rouse our fear?

[Pre]

[Chorus]

[Leadbreak Rolf]

Millions of people disappearing year by year
Leaving no trace or did they just go out of here?
Long told stories tell a blackened man awaits
Minotaurs meal, through bones and blood he wades

[Pre]

[Chorus]
