I'm alone

Can't wait until I feel your rain

So unreal

Can't find another place of your rain

I believe

I still believe in your warm rain

I'm alone

Can't sleep until I feel your rain

How can I find

Love, Faith and Trust inside of your rain?

So unreal, can't find another place of your rain

I believe

I still believe in your warm rain

So untrue

Help me to find through your warm rain

I send out my wishes

You gave me promises

Why don't you feel the same

(I'm sad, I feel like a little child,

Somebody left, there is no rain)

Oh no, I'm waiting

How about your rain?

I can't believe

I still believe in your rain

Like in heaven

I can't wait until I feel your rain

So where's your life?

Who's living the rest of your life?

I can't, I can't,

I can't live this life, I can't live this life

I can't see in your eyes

Can't change it, no more tries

Leave everyone with a smile

And you're sad, you feel like a little child

Somebody's left there is no rain

I send out my wishes
