"Sad Love"

My eyes only search for you
My two hands are still holding onto you
I can't help my own heart
So I'm sad over love

I am standing here right now
If you come closer, you could see me
But this sadness from not being able to have you
Becomes tears and flows down

* I love you, again today, I love you
I am wanting you like this
Can't you just stay?
Whenever I see you, I get greedy so I get scared

I am standing here right now
If you come closer, you could see me
I can't let you go like this
I swallow my tears and let out a sigh

* Repeat

Though I call out your name, it becomes the wind and comes back to me
Though time passes, though you forgot me
I will still wait for you like this

* Repeat

I love you, again today, I love you
I am wanting you like this
Can't you come to me?
The day we will be together...
