I'm a rollin stone, all alone and lost
From a life of sin, well I paid the cost
When I pass by, all the people gonna say
There goes that guy, on the lost highway

Just a deck of cards, and a jug of wine
And a women's laugh, makes a life like mine
On the day we met, I went a stray
Started rollin rollin down, on the lost highway

I was just a kid, nearly twenty two
Not good or bad, but just a kid like you
And now I'm lost, and it's to late to pray
I paid the costs, on that lost highway

Now boys don't start, start to ramble round
This road of sin, are you trouble bound
Take my word, or your gonna curse the day
You started rollin rollin down, that lost highway
Started rollin rollin down, that lost highway
