Puts the empty bottles out by the door
You can always hear him laughin'
I'm so glad he's happy now
Mr. Newman stares out through the glass
Out at all the children playin' on his grass
When night time comes, you can sometimes hear him
cryin'
I'm so glad he's happy now
I always wondered why he went away
Why did he have to go?
Tell me why they won't let us play with Mr. Newman
Mr. Newman
Mr. Newman talks to himself
He won't talk to nobody else
Look in his eyes, you can see he's probably dyin'
I'm so glad he's happy now
Mr. Newman stays up at night
Tryin' to drown the deamon livin' deep inside
Says that he's cured, I know he's really lyin'
I'm so glad he's happy now
I always wondered why he went away
Why did he have to go?
Tell me why they won't let us play with Mr. Newman
Mr. Newman
Mr. Newman's gonna die someday
That's what some of the parent's like to say
Lights go out, you can sometimes hear him screamin'
I'm so glad he's happy now
I always wondered why he went away
Why did he have to go?
Tell me why they won't let us play with Mr. Newman
Mr. Newman
Mr. Newman
Mr. Newman
Mr. Newman.....
