What's a man supposed to say
When you look at me that way
There's not a thing about you I would change
I'm speechless

You're every classic movie star
You're every play, you're every part
You're so deep inside of this man's heart
I'm speechless

So, how do I explain to you
The way you changed my life
Even if I wanted to
It wouldn't come out right

You're every note of every song
You make right my every wrong
And in my arms is where you belong
I'm speechless
You're a lady through and through
There's still a little girl there too
There's nothing that I wouldn't do for you
I'm speechless

So, how do I explain to you
The way you changed my life
Even when I've wanted to
It never came out right
Some things are better left unsaid
And really never heard
A love that you can recognize
Without a single word

So, how do I explain to you
The way you changed my life
Even when I've wanted to
It never came out right
And really never heard
A love that you can recognize
Without a single word

You make everything stand still
You complete the way I feel
And I'll be here for you until
I'm speechless
