In my pounding heart, you are there
In my painful tears, you are there
Our differences made you my greed so I was going to stop

Goodbye love, the time of magic has gone
And the last night has come

When this night is over, my love will be untouchable
Even when we scatter under the cruel sun,
Please don't cry- so you can keep your beautiful smile
(You are my) one and only love
You'll always be my destiny

At the tip of your hands, my tears become the ocean
At the tip of your feet, the memories become sand
I prayed that my unspeakable love will be delivered

Goodbye love, the time of magic has gone
And the last night has come

When this night is over, my love will be untouchable
Even when we scatter under the cruel sun,
Please don't cry- so you can keep your beautiful smile
(You are my) one and only love
You'll always be my destiny

I dream a dream
A dream where we sit across each other and talk

I love you- words I ended up never telling you
Even when we scatter under the cruel sun,
Please don't cry- so you can keep your beautiful smile
(You are my) one and only love
You'll always be my destiny
You'll always be my destiny
