[Verse 1]

Uh huh my name is Bailee Moore and I got drama in the city
Hitting on me telling me that I just I look so pretty Telling me how much respect you give to girls who can be
Classy yet be just a BAD as somebody signed by Diddy
Umm please, no more further mistaken
I'm so sick of con men and that classy connotation
Got a message in a bottle, I'ma bring to conversation
When I down it, I'll be gone, like I'm goin' on vacation
Just keep the game coming, no rain delay
You see my name buzzing, like an 808
Ooh, well if you got game like Spike Lee
Boy, I might give you till strike three
Tonight is so much different cuz my good girl gone
And after all these glasses it's like good's so wrong
Pour my main man Jack till my cup is so strong
And I'm thinking that tonight me you gon' get along cuz

[Chorus]

I wanna go all out
I wanna live my life
All I can say is
I'm leaving my halo home tonight
I wanna just let go
To used to being nice
All I can say is
I'm leaving my halo home tonight

[Verse 2]

So much ladadadadadada
He just said that I'm a goodie goodie,
Someone that he'd wanna break bad
Or make mad, well face facts,
I'm not her usually but tonight it's seeming cool to be
A little different, feelin' lifted,
I think I'm getting addicted
Bad girl lifestyle,
Halo home seems like a good decision
I walk in and they just thinking she's so sexy

I don't drink often but when I do it's not Dos Equis
It's Jack, it's whiskey, tonight I'm feelin' frisky
Tonight the devil horns ain't hidden and the angels
miss me
Lighten up the city
Sprite with Smirnoff mixing
Other girls are jealous talking
But nobody's listening
I'm going too hard, it's strobe light seizure
Dancing all night never need a breather
Low cut skirt for the easy teaser
Red lipstick, that scarlet fever
I should do this frequently
I don't need a reason
And party every night
Like every day is just the weekend

[Chorus]

I wanna go all out
I wanna live my life
All I can say is
I'm leaving my halo home tonight
I wanna just let go
To used to being nice
All I can say is
I'm leaving my halo home tonight

[Bridge]

Left my halo home
And it feels so right
Turning off my phone
To own this night
Left my halo home
And I'm feeling bad
I can only hope
That this night will last

[Chorus]

I wanna go all out
I wanna live my life
All I can say is
I'm leaving my halo home tonight
I wanna just let go
To used to being nice
All I can say is
I'm leaving my halo home tonight
